Community partners served

Each year Leadership Clark County students are strategically divided into teams and assigned a class project to serve a community partner non-profit organization.

Project team

This experience has been very exciting and informative for our organization. We benefitted from working with people outside of our field to gain a different perspective and learn creative ways to make connections in the community.

Lindsey Shafar, Susan Peng-Cowan, Sierra Eckman, Gary Nasca, Cyndi Holloway, Andrea Smith

Project team

LCC leadership and members of the project team were attentive to the goals and interests of Math Anywhere! The team brought their individual strengths together to build a successful community event, providing useful tools for future events.

Project team

Partnered with LCC to work on some projects to improve our board and get more support at the ranch. The team launched us into the next phase so that we may continue to offer services to at risk youth as well as families living in Clark County.

Heidi Steigmann, Tamara Greenwell, Kim Harless, John Rose, Amy Reynolds
